Life Is Temporary

RAMADAN 2027

Write your will this Ramadan

Leave your family a will, and one page that tells them what to do. Free, no account, and nothing you type leaves your device.

> "It is not permissible for any Muslim who has something to will to stay for two nights without having his last will and testament written and kept ready with him."
>
> The Prophet ﷺ · Ṣaḥīḥ al-Bukhārī 2738

1 Write your janazah wishes

Who to call first, where you want to be buried, who should wash you, what you owe and what you are owed, and where your papers are. About 15 minutes.

2 Draft your will

Name an executor, list what must be paid first, leave up to a third to causes and people who do not inherit, and direct the rest to your heirs by the Qurʾānic shares.

3 Take the draft to an estate attorney and a scholar

The page gives you a typeset draft, not a finished will. A lawyer where you live makes it a valid will.

Questions? Ask _____

Draft your will

Executor, debts, a bequest of up to a third, and the shares for your heirs.

lifeistemporary.com/plan-ahead/will

Write your janazah wishes

The page your family needs in the first hour.

lifeistemporary.com/plan-ahead

The will drafter covers the United States, the United Kingdom, Canada and Australia. It makes a draft, not a will: it is not legal advice and not a fatwā, and every ruling on the site links to its source. An Inheriting Islam app.